About the Movie

What's Cookin'

(1942, 69 minutes)

From a time when America needed something to smile about comes this light-hearted musical comedy, What's Cookin'. Leo Carrillo, appearing as Marvo the Great, works his magic to help a band of young aspiring singers achieve their dreams of having their voices heard on the radio. Tradition gets in their way as station manager Agatha insists on only playing classic songs by her favorite vocalist, Professor Bistell. The group devises a sabotage plot to get rid of Bistell, and soon a new sound is heard on the program with a grand finale that will leave you smiling. Starring Leo Carrillo, the Andrews Sisters and Robert Paige.

Supporting Arts & Education

This special evening benefits the California History and Art Program at Leo Carrillo Ranch Historic Park. Over 1,200 local 4th grade students will have the opportunity to visit Carrillo Ranch to share in Leo's vision of early California life and participate in an interactive art lesson. The proceeds from the dinner and silent auction allow this award-winning program to be offered to all 4th grade students in Carlsbad at no cost.

What to Bring

- Low-back chairs or blankets to sit on the lawn
