

Spring / Summer Concerts

Diego Mondragon

Sunday, April 28, 2-3 p.m.

Georgina Cole Library
1250 Carlsbad Village Drive

Diego Mondragon is a Latin jazz violinist who has performed throughout California and internationally as well as for American and Mexican presidents. Classically trained, his music is a passionate, fiery fusion of acoustic-jazz, Latin-Jazz, flamenco and romance. Diego will be accompanied by keyboardist Rymand Entezari.

Jarabe Mexicano

Sunday, May 5, 2-3 p.m.

Carlsbad City Library Schulman Auditorium
1775 Dove Lane

Jarabe Mexicano invites audiences on a joyride through a versatile songbook of Mexican folk as well as rock 'n' roll, Tex-Mex, Latin rock and reggae-cumbia. Performing on stringed folk instruments accompanied by lively percussion, Jarabe's dramatic, harmonized vocals in Spanish and English have gained them the admiration from audiences across the country.

Bayou Brothers

Sunday, June 23, 2-3 p.m.

Carlsbad City Library Schulman Auditorium
1775 Dove Lane

With a sound straight out of Louisiana, the Bayou Brothers deliver a rousing, rollicking good time full of endless enthusiasm at every performance. An eclectic blend of traditional zydeco, blues and R&B, this rocking musical jambalaya transports audiences straight into a Mardi Gras celebration.

Free Admission All concerts have limited seating available on a first come, first served basis.

For more information call 760-602-2055
or visit www.carlsbadlibrary.org.