

Your Police Department

A community conversation

With incidents throughout the nation prompting new interest in the issue of police oversight, the City of Carlsbad would like feedback from our residents and business owners:

- Do you see a need for greater community involvement or oversight of the City of Carlsbad Police Department?
- If so, what would you hope to achieve through this oversight?

By gaining a better understanding of your perspectives, the City Council can make more informed decisions about these issues.

Virtual meetings

The City of Carlsbad has fully transitioned to electing City Council members by geographic district. The mayor continues to be elected by voters citywide.

Please sign up to attend the virtual meeting in your district. If you have a business in Carlsbad, please sign up for the district where your business is located.
